'SPEED POST'

Subject: Revised procedure for students to file online Anti Ragging Affidavit.

Dear Madam/Sir,

As you are aware, in pursuance to the Judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India dated 8.5.2009 in Civil Appeal No. 887/2009, the UGC notified "Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009" and in compliance of the 2nd Amendment in UGC Regulations, it is compulsory for each student and his/her parent/Guardian to submit an online undertaking each academic year at either of the two designated web sites, namely, www.antiragging.in and www.amanmovement.org.

As part of UGC's initiative towards reduction of compliance burden of its stakeholders, UGC has revised the procedure for students to file online Anti Ragging Affidavit.

The revised procedure is as follows:

Step 1: A student will submit his/her details on the same web sites (www.antiragging.in and www.amanmovement.org) as before; read and confirm that he/she and his/her parents/Guardians have read and understood the regulations on curbing the menace of ragging. He/She will confirm & agree that he/she will not engage in ragging in any form. (Step 1 is the same like before).

Step 2: The student will receive an E MAIL with his/her registration number and a web link. The student will forward the link to the E mail of the Nodal officer in his/her university/college. (Please note that the student will not receive pdf affidavits and he/she is not required to print & sign it as used to be the case earlier).

Step 3: The Nodal Officer in the university/college can click on the link of any forwarded e mails that he/she will receive from any student of his/her college to get the list of those students who have submitted Anti Ragging Affidavits/Undertakings in his/her college. The list will be updated every 24 hours.

Various Types of Ragging

The Hon'ble Supreme Court has, inter-alia, mentioned the following types of ragging:-

1. Ragging has several aspects with, among others, psychological, social, political, economic, cultural, and academic dimensions.
2. Any act that prevents, disrupts or disturbs the regular academic activity of a student should be considered with in the academics related aspect of ragging; similarly, exploiting the services of a junior student for completing the academic tasks assigned to an individual or a group of seniors is also an aspect of academics related ragging prevalent in many institutions, particularly in the technical institutions.
3. Any act of financial extortion or forceful expenditure burden put on a junior student by senior students should be considered an aspect of ragging for ragging economic dimensions.
4. Any act of physical abuse including all variants of it: sexual abuse, homosexual assaults, stripping, forcing obscene and lewd acts, gestured, causing bodily harm or any other danger to health or person can be put in the category of ragging with criminal dimensions.
5. Any act or abuse by spoken words, emails, snail-mails, blogs, public insults should be considered with in the psychological aspects of ragging. This aspect would also include deriving perverted pleasure, vicarious or sadistic thrill from actively or passively participating in the discomfiture to others; the absence of preparing 'freshers' in the run up to their admission to higher education and life in hostels also can be ascribed as a psychological aspect of ragging – coping skills in interaction with seniors or strangers can be imparted by parents as well. Any act that affects the mental health and self-confidence of students also can be described in terms of the psychological aspects of ragging.
6. The human rights perspective of ragging involves the injury caused to the fundamental right to human dignity through humiliation heaped on junior students by seniors; often resulting in the extreme step of suicide by the victims.

REPORT

Title of the Event: Awareness Programme on Anti-Ragging and Anti-Drugs

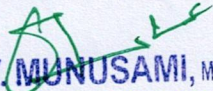

Our college in association with UBA, NSS, RRC&YRC units conducted an awareness programme on “Anti-Ragging and Anti-Drugs” for the first year students. Mr. Palanisamy, Sub-Inspector of Police, Deevatipatti Police Station was invited as chief guest for this programme. The Event started with the Welcome Address delivered by our Respected Principal Dr.Munusami Viswanathan. In his welcome address, he insisted that the students utilize the awareness programme on Anti-Ragging and the ill-effects of drugs. After the welcome address, the session handovers to chief guest for creating awareness on the ill-effects of drugs and alcohol consumption. The goal of the campaign was to mobilize support and inspire the students to act against drug use.

He said, the Government of India is taking every visible effort to prevent teen drug use via the ‘National Youth Anti-Drug Media Campaign’, especially for those making the difficult transition from schools to colleges via their National-level Anti-Drug Policies.

The ‘Anti-Ragging Awareness Programme’ is aimed at making students aware of the laws of the country with respect to ragging and how it affects the lives of people victimized by it.

The campaign comes as an initiative against violations of Human Rights and Inequality, especially in the areas of health, education, employment, safety and interaction. The programme concluded with vote of thank by Mr.M.Prakash Kumar, UBA/Co-ordinator, Narasu’s Sarathy Institute of Technology, Salem.
